SECOND BOOK Judgements.

In Real, Personal, and Mixt Actions, and upon the STATUTE;

All or most of them Mirmed upon Writs of Error.

The COLLECTION, of George Huxley, of Lincolns-Inne Gent. out of the choice Manuscripts of Mr. Brownlowe, and Mr. Moyle, sometimes Prothonotaries of the COMMON-PLEAS; As also of Mr. Smythier, formerly Secondary of the same Court.

Perused, Transcribed, and somewhat Corrected, and Tabled, with Addition of some Notes, by George Townslend Esq; Second Prothonotary of the Common Pleas.

Very Useful and Necessary for all Probabilities, Secondaries, Students, Clerks of JUDGEMENTS, and all sorts of Persons any way relating to the Law BRAR

Multum in Parvo.

LONDON, /2'

Printed by T. R. and N. T. for George Dawes over against Linccolns-Inne-Gate in Chancery Lane, 1674. O

TotheREADER.

Book of JUDGEMENTS, (out of which this was tran-(cribed) coming to the hands of a Stationer, who desired to have it Printed if it might be thought fitting; He requested my Perusal thereof, and furtherance therein : I found the fame to be most of Special Judgements, or Entries in the Court of Common Pleas, in the times of King JAMES, Queen ELIZABETH, and some Ancienter, for the most part ill written, with too many Abbreviations by &c. without Order, Table, or fitting Marginal Notes. Yet finding most part to be of good Matter and Forms, and thinking it fit to be Published,

To the READER.

lished; I first Tabledit, and then caused it to be written forth in as good a Method as I could; which I Perused, and somewhat Corrected, adding Marginal Notes. I conceive the same principally to concern the Prothonotaries of the Court of Common Pleas, and their Clerks of Judgements, but may be often useful to Clerks of the Kings Bench, the Exchequer, Ireland, Counties Palatine, Franchises, and Corporarions, and many other Practicers at Law. Publick Charity more than any my own Profit, concerns, or Interest, incited me to this work, which, if well accepted, I have my ends. I stile this A Second Book of Judgements, there being a former Book of Judgements in English, Published in the Year, 1655.

Primo Aprilis 1674.
